Advent

Advent is a time of preparation. We prepare our homes for the upcoming Christmas season; we prepare gifts for our family, friends and neighbors; we prepare our cars for the winter season. One of the areas that we cannot neglect is the preparation of our hearts, the very place where we meet Jesus on Christmas. I believe in the past I've mentioned a friend of mine, Father John O'Connor, who lives in New Zealand. His blogpost today is entitled "Just One Thing". I share that with you here: just one thing - food for faith What struck me was the simplicity of the request to Jesus - fill me with whatever miracles I need today. That's it. I think sometimes we think that the path to Heaven is complicated, but only because we make it so. Jesus just wants to love us and have us return that love. We're the ones who block Him. Maybe it really is that simple. Let us ask for whatever He wants to give us today, and then praise Him.

In Christ's love,
Sister Mary Cecilia, C.K.
