Christmas 1921

There is nothing like an easily read short story to bring me back to what is important....we used the piece for a discussion at the faculty meeting. In case you want to enjoy the ten minute read with your family. I'll attach it. My favorite line, contributed by a fellow faculty member, "While the boy thought pa was going to read from the Bible, instead he lived it." The communication among those in the essay was also fodder for good discussion. The question was, "Was pa a good communicator?" Sometimes good communication is invisible to children! God bless each of our families during this Advent time of grace.
